

International Seminars: New Technologies, Law and Society

October, 10th, 17th and 24th, 2020

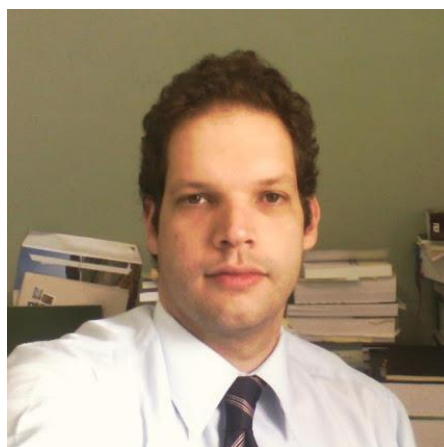

LECTURERS

ROUND 1

Rafael Andrzej Lukasiewicz

Ph.D. in Civil Law at Adam Mickiewicz University in Poland. Post-Doctoral stage at MICHR, Reggio Calabria. Assistant Professor at the Department of Civil Law and Commercial Law at the Institute of Legal Studies of the University of Rzeszów (Poland).
<https://orcid.org/0000-0003-4054-7492>

Eliseu Raphael Venturi

Ph.D. em Direito pela Universidade Federal do Paraná, UFPR (2019). Mestre em Direito pela Universidade Federal do Paraná, UFPR (2014). Especialista em Direito Público pela Escola da Magistratura Federal do Paraná, ESMAFE / PR (2011). Bacharel em Direito pelo Centro Universitário Curitiba, UNICURITIBA (2010). Graduado em Artes Visuais pela Faculdade de Letras do Paraná, FAP / PR (2006). Foi Editor Executivo da Revista de Direito da Universidade Federal do Paraná (2015-2017). Foi membro do Comitê de Ética em Pesquisa em Seres Humanos da UFPR (2016-2019). Atualmente, ele investiga o pós-humanismo e a biopolítica afirmativa como marcos críticos na Filosofia do Direito, especialmente com foco em questões de teoria e cultura democráticas (democracia biopolítica e democrática).
<http://lattes.cnpq.br/7838065983443736>

ROUND 2

Paiman Ramazan Ahmad

Ph.D. in Public Administration at National University of Public Service-Budapest-Hungary. Post-Doctoral stage at MICHR, Reggio Calabria. With academic with research interest in oil price politics, energy governance, renewable energy rentier economies and sustainable development in developing economies. Professor at University of Raparin, Iraq. https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Paiman_Ahmad ORCID iD <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-5887-3782>

Flávio De Leão Bastos Pereira

Ph.D. (2017) and LL.M. (2002) in Law at Mackenzie's Presbyterian University. Post Doctoral stage at Mediterranean International Centre for Human Rights Research, Reggio Calabria Mediterranean University (2021), with full scholarship. Post degree in Human Rights at Pablo de Olavide University (Sevilla, Spain) and in Fundamental Rights at Coimbra's University (Instituto Ius Gentium Conimbrigae/IGC) and IBCCRIM. Co-founder of Observatório Constitucional Latino-Americano - OCLA. Part of The International Nuremberg Principles Academy (Nuremberg Academy) specialists. Professor at Mackenzie's Presbyterian University. Invited professor at Professional LL.M. at Santa Cecilia's University (UNISANTA), and São Paulo's State Military Judiciary School and also at São Paulo's State Superior School of Public Prosecutor (2019). Autor. <http://lattes.cnpq.br/0429477617811762>

Marcelo Paulo Wacheleski

Ph.D. in Human Rights and Democracy from the Federal University of Paraná with a research period at the Universidad Complutense de Madrid (2018). Master in Laws at University of Vale do Itajaí (2007). Graduation at University of Contestado (2003). Professor of Constitutional, Administrative and Human Rights Law in postdegree and graduate courses. Has research developed in Public Policies, Administrative Law, Constitutional Law and Human Rights with publications in Brazil and abroad. <http://lattes.cnpq.br/2712143006514033>

MESA 3

Rommell Ismael Sandoval Rosales

Ph.D. in Law from the Autonomous University of Barcelona. MICHR Postdoctoral Program Fellow, Reggio Calabria. He has worked for more than 25 years as an international consultant on Judicial Reform in Central America, the Dominican Republic, Panama and Mexico with USAID; IDB, OAS and other cooperators. He has been a professor of courses for judges, prosecutors and police in constitutional guarantees, procedural law and evidentiary law / oral litigation. He is a professor of procedural law in the doctoral program of the Univ. Dr. and Pro. José Matías Delgado. He has published on constitutional law, fundamental rights, procedural law and Central American community law. He is the director of the SBA law firm and the I&D Consulting firm (an expert in innovation, technology and strengthening of public and justice institutions). Full CV: <https://www.uianet.org/sites/default/files/crm/Contact/s/70418/SANDOVAL%20ROMMELL%20-%20CV.pdf>

Michelle Asato Junqueira

Ph.D. (2016) and Master's Degree (2010) in Law from Mackenzie Presbyterian University. Specialization in Constitutional Law with an extension in Teaching of Higher Education (2006). Law degree from Mackenzie Presbyterian University (2000). She is currently a professor of Law at Mackenzie Presbyterian University. Research Coordinator of the Faculty of Law and Vice-Coordinator of the Ethics Committee in Human Research. She is the leader of the CriDirMack Research Group: the right to voice and voice of children and adolescents; and Deputy Director of the Public Policy Research Group as an instrument of citizen effectiveness. Researcher in various research projects. Evaluator of various journals in the legal area. She has experience in the area of Law, with an emphasis on Public Law, working mainly on the following topics: education, university evaluation, legal training, university autonomy, crisis of powers, democratic legitimacy, children's rights, and adolescent and economic law. <http://lattes.cnpq.br/8148413691442311>

COORDINATION AND MEDIATION

Thiago Felipe S. Avanci dr.avanci@outlook.com || +55 13 981351770

Ph.D. in Law at Mackenzie's Presbyterian University (2020), with full scholarship and approval summa cum laude. Post Doctoral stage at Mediterranean International Centre for Human Rights Research, Università Mediterranea di Reggio Calabria (2021), with full scholarship. Master of Law at Universidade Católica de Santos - UNISANTOS (2011), with full scholarship and approval summa cum laude. Post Graduation in Public Management, Municipalities Public Management at Universidade Federal de São Paulo - UNIFESP (2019). Bachelor of Law at Universidade Católica de Santos - UNISANTOS (2007). Professor at Universidade Paulista - UNIP (2014-). Professor at Centro Universitário São Judas Tadeu campus UNIMONTE (2017-). Associate Member of Society and Technology Study Center/Polytechnic Faculty/ São Paulo University (2020-). Vice Chairman and Chairman of Guarujá's Municipality Council for Childrens and Adolescents Rights (2014-2016). Advisor at several Guarujá's Municipality Council like Health, Food Safety, Social Assistance, Public Transportation (2012-). INEP/MEC Evaluator (2018-). Lawyer (2008-) Legal Head, Human Resources and Social Projects Manager (2012-). Government Advisor (2019-). <http://lattes.cnpq.br/7186302213132065>

CENTRO DE ESTUDOS SOCIEDADE E TECNOLOGIA (CEST)

CEST was created at the Polytechnic School of the University of São Paulo in December 2013, from grants by Microsoft Co. CEST is a multidisciplinary group that discusses the use of technologies and how they impact on contemporary society.

SUPPORT MEMBERS

Edison Spina

Ph.D. in Computer Engineering from USP Engineering School; Auditor Leader ISO 9000 (1995); MSc / Master's degree in 1990 (EP-USP) and Electronic Engineer in 1981 (EP-USP); Freelance Advisor in Electromagnetic Interference and Compatibility (1987), Quality and Management of Projects (1998); Director of Antares Eletrônica Ltda. (industry, 1986-2000), Project Manager at the Foundation for Engineering Technological Development – FDTE, Electronic Security Systems Analyst (LCA and GAS / PCS); Assistant Lecturer with the Department of Computer Engineering and Digital Systems – PCS (EP-USP) since 1988; Member of the Knoma – Laboratory of Knowledge Engineering; Coordinator of the Study Center Society and Technology of USP; Council Member of the Committee of Sciences and Technology of OAB (Brazilian Bar Association); Coordinator of the Brazilian Teams of European Projects INSTINC (FP6), BELIEF (FP6), BELIEF 2 (FP7), VertbrALCUE (Alfa3), and eMundus (Erasmus Mundus); Member of the Committee for International Relations of the School of Engineering of USP (EP-USP); and Advisor of the Executive Board of the Menon Group (Brussels). <http://lattes.cnpq.br/7279368529085920>

Vera Cristina Queiroz

PhD in Education (University of São Paulo – USP). Master in Applied Linguistics for Language Teaching (Pontifical Catholic University -PUC/São Paulo). Collaborator at CEST. Was an English teacher at binational centers (Alumni Association and União Cultural Brazil-United States), lecturer in several EFL/ESL national/international conferences. Was a consultant at Lemann Foundation. Integrated the specialists' commission in Distant Education for the State of São Paulo Education Board and the commission assessing candidates proficiency in English for graduate programs at USP Law School. <http://lattes.cnpq.br/5295558136005365>

ESA/OAB/SP COORDINATION

Jorge Cavalcanti Boucinhas Filho

Ph.D. (2012) and Master (2008) in Labor Law from the University of São Paulo - USP. Postdoctoral fellow at the Laboratoire de Droit et Changement Social at the Université de Nantes, France. He is Vice-Leader of the Research Group on Migration and International Labor Law (GEMDIT) at the Faculty of Law of the University of São Paulo (USP) and is a member of the Research Group on Public Policies as a tool for effecting citizenship, at Universidade Presbiteriana Mackenzie. Lawyer in São Paulo, he is a member of the Superior Council for Labor Relations of the Federation of Industries of the State of São Paulo (FIESP), of the Council of Employment and Labor Relations of the Federation of Commerce of São Paulo (FECOMERCIO SP) and of the Commercial Association of the State of Paraná (ACP). He was responsible for the International Sector of the Union of Employees in Hotels Bars Restaurants, Furniture and similar establishments in the state of São Paulo SINTHORESP, between 2012 and 2013, when he elaborated and monitored measures adopted by the International Labor Organization and the Organization of American States. He is a professor of Labor Law in the Law courses at Universidade Presbiteriana Mackenzie and Universidade São Judas and in the Business Administration course at Fundação Getúlio Vargas - EAESP / FGV and General Director of the OAB SP Law School for the three-year period 2019- 2021. Holder of Chair no. 21 of the Brazilian Academy of Labor Law. <http://lattes.cnpq.br/5951680447692473>

Adriano de Assis Ferreira

Ph.D. in Brazilian Literature by the Faculty of Philosophy, Letters and Human Sciences - USP (2010) and Ph.D. in Law by the Faculty of Law of USP (2015). Master of Arts in Literature (Literary Theory and Comparative Literature) from the University of São Paulo (2004). Master in Political and Economic Law from Mackenzie's Presbyterian University (2004). Graduated from the Pontifical Catholic University of São Paulo (2012). General Coordinator of the OAB Superior School of Law, Section SP. Founding partner of the company Legal Content and associate professor at São Judas Tadeu University. Studies, in the area of Political Science, the crisis of democracy, neoliberalism and populism. He also conducts studies in General Theory of Law and Sociology of Professions, with an emphasis on Brazilian Advocacy. <http://lattes.cnpq.br/1917011515776326>

Flávio de Leão Bastos Pereira

Ph.D. (2017) and LL.M. (2002) in Law at Mackenzie's Presbyterian University. Post Doctoral stage at Mediterranean International Centre for Human Rights Research, Reggio Calabria Mediterranean University (2021), with full scholarship. Post degree in Human Rights at Pablo de Olavide University (Sevilla, Spain) and in Fundamental Rights at Coimbra's University (Instituto Ius Gentium Conimbrigae/IGC) and IBCCRIM. Co-founder of Observatório Constitucional Latino-Americano - OCLA. Part of The International Nuremberg Principles Academy (Nuremberg Academy) specialists. Professor at Mackenzie's Presbyterian University. Invited professor at Professional LL.M. at Santa Cecilia's University (UNISANTA), and São Paulo's State Military Judiciary School and also at São Paulo's State Superior School of Public Prosecutor (2019). Autor. <http://lattes.cnpq.br/0429477617811762>

PARTNER ENTITY

São Judas Tadeu LAW SCHOOL - UNIMONTE

SPONSORSHIP

Escola Superior de Advocacia – Ordem dos Advogados do Brasil/SP